I think it is fine this morning, esp since this is all technical folks. Different story probably for next one. EPA is way outnumbering deq right now, which isn't ideal

You should participate as the air toxics counterpart to Sarah from ODEQ. We're just nervous about loading the call up with too many EPA folks.

Does that mean I shouldn't be on the calls either?

I agree with Katie M. Our current approach is to serve in a supporting role to the State and I think the expectation is for limited EPA participation. Appreciate all that Katie O. and OAWT are doing for sure, and this is absolutely no slight! Scott

I plan to be on the calls. I would like to invite Katie, because then she can compare what she saw yesterday to what processes Bullseye describes tomorrow. Thanks!
